UNITED STATES' MOTION FOR TWO-WEEK TIME EXTENSION TO FILE RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S JOINT MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY (Doc. 49)

The United States respectfully requests a two-week extension of time within which to file its response to Defendant's Joint Motion to Compel Discovery. See Doc. 49. The United States has been diligently working through the Defendants' 13-page letter demanding specific discovery, and upon which Defendants' motion is based. The United States plans to disclose a portion of the items Defendants requested, and then file a motion outlining which items (1) have already been disclosed, (2) will be disclosed, (3) do not exist, and (4) are not subject to disclosure. The United States needs an additional two weeks to accomplish that task. None of the Defendants oppose this relief. Accordingly, the United States requests the Court extend the United States' response deadline to the joint motion to compel discovery for two-weeks, until May 17, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. ANDERSON

United States Attorney
